FEDERAL GRAND JURY RETURNS INDICTMENTS

Madison, Wisconsin -- A federal grand jury in the Western District of Wisconsin, sitting in Madison, returned the following indictments yesterday. You are advised that a charge is merely an accusation and that a defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

MADISON MAN CHARGED WITH DRUG AND GUN CRIMES

Julio Jose Leon Sanchez, DOB 12/12/82, of Madison, Wisconsin, was charged in a six-count indictment with drug and gun offenses. The indictment alleges that Sanchez distributed cocaine on June 8, 2005, on June 15, 2005, and on June 23, 2005. The indictment further alleges that on June 23, 2005, Sanchez possessed cocaine and marijuana with the intent to distribute, and was a felon in possession of a sawed-off 12 gauge shotgun. If convicted, Sanchez faces a maximum penalty of 20 years in federal prison on each of the drug charges, and 10 years in federal prison on the felon in possession charge.

This matter was investigated by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Elizabeth Altman.

HAYWARD NURSE CHARGED WITH TAMPERING WITH MEDICATIONS

Connie Swope, DOB 3/14/59, of Hayward, Wisconsin, was charged with three counts of tampering with a consumer product. The indictment alleges that Swope, while working as a registered nurse at the Hayward Area Memorial Hospital, had access to injectable medications, including morphine sulphate, hydromorphone, and Demerol, and that on three occasions in 2004 and 2005, she removed medications from 1 ml syringe cassettes and replaced the medication with a type of saline solution.

If convicted, Swope faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison on each count. This matter was investigated by the Sawyer County Sheriff's Department. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Daniel J. Graber.

MIDDLETON MAN INDICTED ON DRUG CHARGES

Andre L. Bauswell, DOB 6/4/78, of Middleton, Wisconsin, was charged in a two-count indictment with possession of cocaine and crack cocaine with intent to distribute. The indictment alleges that he possessed the drugs on March 31, 2006.

If convicted, Bauswell faces a maximum penalty of 20 years in prison. This matter was investigated by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force, the Drug Enforcement Administration, and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Timothy M. O'Shea.

MADISON MAN INDICTED ON DRUG CHARGE

Connes B. Campbell, DOB 4/6/78, of Madison, Wisconsin, was charged with possession of more than five grams of crack cocaine with the intent to distribute. The indictment alleges that he possessed the crack cocaine on April 5, 2006.

If convicted, Campbell faces a mandatory minimum penalty of five years in federal prison, and a maximum penalty of 40 years in federal prison. This matter has been investigated by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force, the Drug Enforcement Administration, and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Timothy M. O'Shea.
